

Mr. Stephenson presented the memorial of Robert McGaw and twelve others, in favor of the Harford and Cecil county Boom Company;

Which was read and referred to the committee already raised upon that subject.

Mr. Stephenson presented the petition of A. J. Street and one hundred and ninety-five others, in favor of the Harford and Cecil county Boom bill;

Which was read and referred to the committee already raised upon that subject.

Mr. Stephenson presented the petition of Ignatius Rutledge and 84 others, in favor of the Harford and Cecil county Boom bill;

Which was read and referred to the committee already raised on that subject.

Mr. Earle presented the memorial of Martin Shultz, a soldier of the war of 1812;

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Stephenson presented the memorial of two hundred and twelve citizens of the town of Havre-de-Grace, remonstrating against the erection of any Boom or Booms below the railroad bridge at said town;

Which was read and referred to the committee already raised on that subject.

Mr. Earle presented the Charter of the Academy of Sciences;

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Earle presented the claims of members and officers of the General Assembly of Maryland, of the extra session at Frederick city;

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Vickers presented the petition of D. V. Hammond and others, of Frederick county, to authorize a conveyance of certain church property to the Methodist Protestant Church in Frederick county;

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Judicial Proceedings.

Mr. Vickers presented the petition of James C. Mann and 83, others, citizens of Kent county, for a law to levy a tax in Kent county, to aid in the construction of the Kent county Rail Road;

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Vickers, Earle and Mackall.

On motion of Mr. Bowie, it was